Pope Francis

On Sunday 15 May, Pope Francis proclaimed 10 new saints in what was the first canonisation Mass to take place in Rome after more than two years.

Among them were some well-known figures, like Charles de Foucauld . However, there were also four women canonised, all of whom were leaders in their time and founders of influential religious congregations.

In his homily during Mass, Pope Francis reminded those gathered that the path of holiness 'is so simple! To see Jesus always in others.' The more we serve Christ in others, the more we can become saints and be 'a luminous reflection of the Lord in history.'

The Pope emphasised that the source of strength for all of these saints was the recognition that their abilities and efforts were not the most important thing – only the knowledge that they were definitively loved:

He loved us first; he waits for us; he keeps loving us. This is our identity: we are God's loved ones. This is our strength: we are loved by God.'

You can read their stories: the four women who, named after the Blessed Virgin, followed the path of holiness, and served Christ in the poor, the sick, and the abandoned; at <https://melbournecatholic.org/news/four-new-women-canonised-as-saints-by-pope-francis>

MELBOURNE ARCHDIOCESE COVID-19 GUIDELINES

MAXIMISE VENTILATION

It is recommended that windows and outside doors be opened, where possible, to maximise ventilation and to improve indoor air quality. Reduce or eliminate recirculated air and increase the use of outdoor air where possible.

You might need to "RUG UP" for Mass during the colder months.

LITURGICAL CONSIDERATIONS

It is recommended that those who distribute Holy Communion continue to wear a Face Covering and sanitise their hands before doing so.

Please follow the link below to view the guidelines
